DEMANDS VS OPPORTUNITY

A former vice president of the Communist Party this month made a statement in a speech about why she would support Joe Biden for president. Angela Davis, also a former member of the Weather Underground and Black panthers said she didn't see this election about who will be able to lead us in the right direction but who can be most effectively pressured into allowing more space for the anti-racist movement. She said Biden is very problematic but is far more likely to take mass demands seriously. Is that how we are supposed to carve out our position in this country, by demanding what we want?

OPPORTUNITY

When the forefathers wrote the declaration of independence, they included some inalienable rights given to us by our creator. They were life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We as a nation were slow to afford those opportunities to the total of our citizens. We finally did get it correct after the Civil War. What the forefathers envisioned was the opportunity to make a good life for yourself through creativity, through hard work. That opportunity today is afforded to anyone who wants to put in the time to, get an education, to work hard.

Our nation was founded as one nation under God. The men who drafted its laws and the constitution followed the biblical principles which are constantly under attack. This attack originates from the same father of lies Adam and Eve dealt with in the garden of Eden. That's right the devil and his cohorts are still out there pitting one person against the other. In Ephesians 6:12 the apostle Paul wrote for we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

The battle is manifest in humans by having a difference of opinion for how we acquire needs. I am bias toward the biblical model that teaches we need to work hard and generate income through a pay check or business enterprise of some sort. This is what citizens of America call free market capitalism. If you work hard, pay your debts, and have some success that is what is considered the pursuit of happiness.

The Opposing opinion is what is what I consider a deceptive path to acquire needs. This path is by issuing demands for what is thought to be mine. If those demands are not met, then I'll take what I consider mine. The radical expression of this government is manifest in Socialism, Communism, and Marxism. Since this form of government is not what America was founded on there is division and those who want to follow that philosophy attempt to tear down anyone or any organization who dares to defend the right to operate in a free market society.

Responsibility

Most people in this country are inherently good. The Senior Editor for Concealed Carry Magazine was recently quoted saying: “The outlaw didn’t make this nation; he hindered its development. It was not the outlaw who tilled the land or felled the timber or plumbed the cities. It was not the outlaw who rang the school bells or manned the fire brigades or paved the streets. It was not the outlaw who healed the sick or raised the children. “It was the responsible women and men of this country — who often had to go about armed in defense against the outlaw— who made this country what it is today, and in that sense little has changed. In the face of those who did nothing but victimize and take, the responsible woman and man protected and gave. The fundamentally civilized rose up against and responded to the fundamentally uncivilized. We must not stand by and let our founding principles be destroyed.

When I think about what Angela Davis said in her statement, I think about a hostage situation. She said Biden would be best because he would cave the most to their demands. I feel like we are being held hostage in our own country. The ones holding us hostage are not asking to help make things better and offering up solutions to the problems, they are just issuing their demands. If they don’t get what they demand, then the plan is to destroy the country. As for me and my house we will serve the Lord. He will not be held hostage.

DEFENSIVE SHOOTING FUNDAMENTALS

Defensive Shooting Fundamentals

Defensive Shooting Fundamentals is an Intuitive shooting program designed to help the student be more efficient with a defensive handgun in the context of a worst-case scenario ambush-style attack. This course is one day of an online curriculum and certification followed by intense training, teaching and practice on the range.

This defensive handgun training course is not designed to make you the best shooter you can be on the range, rather its goal is to help you quickly develop fundamental skills that you can apply in a worst case scenario defensive shooting situation.

DSF is based on years of constantly evolving information about how the body works and what really happens during Dynamic Critical Incidents. It has been heavily influenced a diverse group of instructors that are certified to teach it and the thousands of students who have been through courses all around the world. The program features a variety of specialty drills and training methods that the student will be able to utilize in their own practice after the course.
